

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

Want to be the next Steven Spielberg, Peter Jackson or George Lucas?

If you are a budding film-maker and want your film to be screened in Tamworth next June, read on...

Hollywood is coming to the region in the shape of the Heart of England International Film Festival from June 8 - 13, 2009. Organisers of the UK's biggest event of its kind have launched a new film category called The Tamworth Award and it is open to students in the Heart of England region.

Your movie must feature Tamworth and/or the region OR.. be made by film-makers from Tamworth OR... feature people from Tamworth. It can be on any subject and of any length. If your film is shortlisted by a panel of judges you may have the chance to win The Heart Award.

To submit your film, please send to Nick Hudson at 1 Kemp's Court, Avenue Road, Coalville LE67 3NS or at hudlines@hotmail.com.

Final date for submissions is 4 May 2009.

For further information please contact Sian Crickett on 01827 709217

The Heart of England
International Film Festival

The biggest event next year: The Heart of England International Film Festival 2009

Tamworth
Borough Council